“Communication, Education and Facilitation”
2010 NARHA Region 3 Conference
March 19-21, 2010
Roanoke, WV

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE:

Friday, March 19, 2010

11a.m.-6p.m.: Conference Registration

12-6p.m.: Exhibit Tables and Silent Auction Open

1-5p.m.: Center Accreditation Training (CAT)

Being a NARHA Premier Accredited Center tells your community and potential donors that your organization is dedicated to safety and quality equestrian services. Centers wishing to become accredited or to renew accreditation can send one or more representatives. This course is also open to instructors seeking NARHA certification. Industry personnel are encouraged to take the CAT as continuing education. Although this is a free workshop, you must pre-register and you must bring a copy of the current NARHA Standards for Certification & Accreditation Manual.

1-5p.m.: SOI (Special Olympics) Equestrian Sport Coaches Class for Certification.

Presented by Lewis Dyer, certified special olympics equestrian sport coach and member of the area 7 SCSO steering committee.

3-5p.m.: Ground Lessons.

This will be a discussion format. We encourage you to bring a ground lesson or 2 to share.
The moderator will be Ken Ashton.

6-7p.m.: Dinner in the dining room

7-8p.m.: State meetings

8-10p.m.: Social with live band, “The Hillbilly Gypsies” and cash bar.

The Hillbilly Gypsies are a West Virginia native string band. They specialize in playing their own homegrown style of Appalachian old time music, mixed with a hard drivin’ bluegrass sound. In addition to their original material they also play an eclectic mix of traditional and not-so-traditional bluegrass standards and catchy old fiddle tunes.
